

whole Read the Bible in a Year

5 Day Plan

To read the entire Bible in a year, you need to read about 22 or 23 chapters each week. That's not as much as it sounds; for a 7 day a week plan, that's 3 chapters daily and for 5 days a week, it comes to about 4-5 chapters a day.

This plan calls for 5 readings per week. The calendar is perpetual, meaning you can begin any time through the year. I've numbered them week 1, week 2 and so on but you can write the real date in these pages to help you keep track.

Below is a nice readable chart; the very last pages give you a smaller chart that fits in your Bible to help you keep track.
